PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I reflect on 2024–25, I am filled with pride and optimism for the future of Men's Sheds Canada (MSC). This past year was transformative – marked by growth, innovation, and deepening connections across the country.

A pivotal achievement was earning our designation as a Canadian Registered Charity in January of 2025, a milestone that positions MSC to establish corporate sponsorships, planned giving programs, and other funding opportunities—laying the foundation for long-term sustainability and expanding the reach and impact of Sheds nationwide.

Together with the Provincial Men's Shed Associations in British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, and Ontario, we welcomed 53 new Sheds, bringing our pan-Canadian network to 150 registered Sheds by the end of the fiscal year (March 31, 2025). We also took crucial steps to support the establishment of a new Provincial Association in Quebec. These efforts demonstrate not just numerical growth but strengthened partnerships and shared commitment to the Shed movement.

Our digital presence took a major leap forward in 2024-25, with a new website and new social media channels. At the close of the fiscal year, our first bilingual Impact video had more than 3,000 views in its first month, bringing to life stories of purpose, connection, and well-being that define the Shed movement. We also hosted a landmark national webinar in November, featuring internationally recognized Men's Shed expert and researcher Dr. Barry Golding, drawing participation from members of the research, academic, health, and aging sectors, and underscoring the growing recognition of Men's Sheds as a powerful model for connection and community well-being.

To support Sheds directly, we launched monthly Shed Zoom Learning Sessions covering topics including Fund Development; Getting Started with Grants; Embracing Diversity and Fostering Inclusion; Paths to Financial Sustainability; and Incorporation Fundamentals - as well as the monthly Cross-Canada Shed Check-in series for informal conversation.

We also introduced the weekly SHEDnews e-bulletin, keeping our growing community of Shedders informed and engaged across Canada. Complementing these initiatives, we developed the SHEDhub online community, a “digital home base” for MSC Member Sheds and Provincial Associations, subsequently launched in early 2025-26.

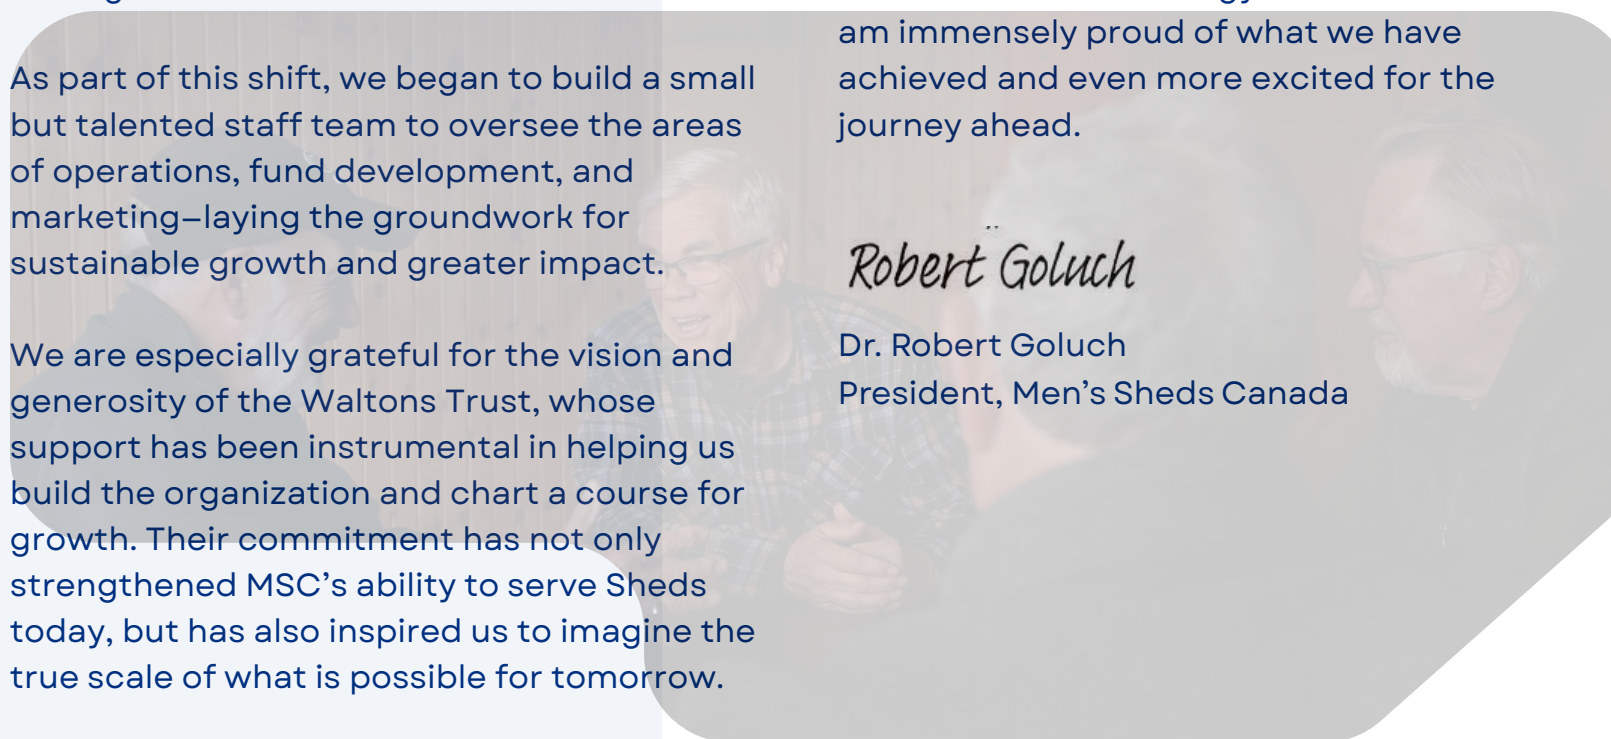

Building the capacity and infrastructure of the organization itself was a major focus. We expanded Board advisory committees to include Research and Advocacy, Marketing and Communications, and Fund Development, alongside Finance and Membership. These committees support our transition from an operating Board to a governance-focused Board, allowing MSC Board members to provide long-term strategic direction rather than day-to-day management.

As part of this shift, we began to build a small but talented staff team to oversee the areas of operations, fund development, and marketing—laying the groundwork for sustainable growth and greater impact.

We are especially grateful for the vision and generosity of the Waltons Trust, whose support has been instrumental in helping us build the organization and chart a course for growth. Their commitment has not only strengthened MSC's ability to serve Sheds today, but has also inspired us to imagine the true scale of what is possible for tomorrow.

Looking ahead, our ambitions are bold: launching our first national campaign, The Shed Effect, for International Men's Day in November 2025, expanding our French-language resources and including a French version of our website, and building our research capacity and partnerships to create compelling Canadian evidence of the social impact of Men's Sheds.

It is inspiring to witness how a simple idea—men coming together with purpose, companionship, and skill—has grown into a vibrant movement touching thousands of lives across Canada. All of this progress positions us well on our way to achieving our longer-term goal of 1,000 Sheds across the country by 2032. Reaching this milestone will ensure that Men's Sheds can contribute a strong voice to the development of a clear Canadian health strategy for older men. I am immensely proud of what we have achieved and even more excited for the journey ahead.

FINANCIAL REPORT

A significant deficiency in internal control is defined as a deficiency or combination of deficiencies in internal control that, in the auditor's professional judgment, is of sufficient importance to merit the attention of those charged with governance.

We did not identify any control deficiencies that, in our judgment, would be considered significant deficiencies apart from those outlined below:

- i) Documentation of Voided and Damaged Cheques

Maintain complete records for all voided and damaged cheques, including the reason for voiding, details of any replacement cheque issued, and either the original cheque or a scanned copy if the original is shredded.

Avoid issuing cheques out of numerical sequence to ensure accuracy in reconciliation and audit tracking.
- ii) Tax Coding and Receipt Documentation

Review and monitor tax coding in QuickBooks to ensure accuracy and consistency with CRA requirements.

Require all receipts submitted for reimbursements to be itemized, clearly showing the nature of each expense, in order to support transparency and compliance during audits.
- iii) Issuance of T4A Slips

Ensure T4A slips are issued to all individual contractors who are paid more than $500 in a calendar year, in accordance with CRA regulations. This will support accurate tax reporting and mitigate the risk of non-compliance penalties.

We would like to thank management and staff for the assistance they provided to us during the audit.

We hope the information in this audit findings letter will be useful. We would be pleased to discuss them with you and respond to any questions you may have.
